That would work, assuming we have management in place to support things other than PFAS.

I tip my hat to you. Nice work.

So the next step is to share this list with SRC? Does this list include any of the ones we're already assessing (e.g., identified by a drinking water test method)?

Subject: PFAS used in polymers - update

Hi Dave,

I have completed the second phase (removing duplicate entries) of my effort to identify PFAS used to make polymers.
